Posh Pile Launches China and Hong Kong Domains to Better Serve Car Enthusiasts!

The first Chinese and English carpeted car mat websites in Asia

Hong Kong August 2010: to better serve end users, Posh Pile has launched two new domains: www.poshpile.com.cn and www.poshpile.com.hk in addition to www.poshpile.com that launched in May. Since it's launch www.poshpile.com has appeared in Google searches over 34 million times.

Before the Posh Pile site went online, car enthusiasts looking for higher quality carpeted car mats had to go to one of the websites operating in the U.S., Japan, or U.K., or go to their local car dealer. Shipping from the U.S., Japan, or the U.K. can easily exceed US $100 alone. Posh Pile delivers both universal and direct fit carpeted car mats of exceptional quality with local delivery at very affordable rates.

“It gives us great pleasure to help car owners find the very best carpeted car mats locally in their market.” Says Tom Muldowney, Posh Pile Managing Director. “I found my mats wore out every 1-2 years, and I could not easily find replacements in Hong Kong. Car enthusiasts can now buy superior quality Posh Pile mats locally at very reasonable prices.”

About Posh Pile:

Headquartered in Hong Kong, Posh Pile is the inspiration of a long time car guy, who went to car shows globally for ten years while launching the leading brand of car care products from the U.S. These mats are designed in the U.S.A, but are available locally in Asia.

Posh Pile's car guy creator found that the OE mats his cars came with wore out after 1 – 2 years . He found it difficult to find mats in the market up to the high standards of his luxurious interiors, so he created Posh Pile.
